

PPMG Habit 7 (cont.) Agent Closing Lines

Last impressions are...lasting. Find your favorite or mix & match. Make it Authentic.

"Thanks again for choosing PPMG for your new policy. We'll be here for you every step of the way."

"If you need anything today, tomorrow or ten years from now, call me anytime."

"You wrote down my name, right? If you or your wife/husband has any questions or need to make changes to your coverage anytime, call me directly and I'll help you personally."

"I really enjoyed helping you and your family so feel free to have your wife call me when you get your policy. I'll be happy to review your coverage and answer any questions."

"I'm glad we got this taken care of for your family today and I look forward to securing your coverage."

"If there's anything you need during the review process, I'll be your personal agent and will walk you through everything to make it as simple and easy as possible."

"As a personal courtesy, you can call me anytime during the review process. I've helped over (X number) customers get new coverage and I know the applications like the back of my hand. Just call me and I'll make it easy for you and your wife/husband."

"I enjoyed helping you and look forward to receiving your completed application."

"I look forward to calling you with good news when your policy is approved."

"Remember, make sure you complete those next steps we discussed. I'll call you to let you know when the coverage for your wife/husband is fully activated."

"Congratulations again taking the first step to securing your family's financial future."

"You did a great thing here. I'm sure your (spouse) is going to be happy you got this handled today."

"Tell your wife/husband that she/he can sleep well tonight."

"Feel free to have your family & friends call me directly for help with their Insurance. I love helping my Clients connections save money, as well."